Welcome to Bankside Gallery, the Gallery of the Royal Watercolour Society, and the Royal Society of Painter-Printmakers. Bankside Gallery celebrates the very best in contemporary watercolour and printmaking through regular exhibitions by Royal Society Members.

Event Hire

Bankside Gallery is an ideal venue for private and corporate events. The Gallery is situated on the south bank of the Thames – just a bridge away from the City.

Home to two Royal Societies, contemporary exhibitions featuring watercolours and prints provide an elegant and sophisticated backdrop to any event. It is a unique and distinctive setting in a friendly and stylish atmosphere.

Whether you are planning corporate hospitality, a book launch, a wine tasting, or a birthday party our helpful and experienced staff can advise with every stage of your plans.

"It is rare to find a venue where the staff feel that nothing is too much trouble and everything is dealt with in a professional and very courteous manner."

Alison Hirsch, recent client

Location

Bankside Gallery is situated on the Thames river front, directly beside Tate Modern in the Bankside area of London; a vibrant cultural quarter, also rich in local character and history.

Hire fee

The Gallery is available from 6pm until 11:30pm.
The standard hire charge is £295 + VAT per hour.

Numbers

We can accommodate up to 200 people for a drinks reception, or up to 70 people for seated event.

Facilities

The Gallery is on the ground floor and is approximately 1500 square feet; the entrance is from the riverside and is wheelchair accessible.
