Welcome to Bankside Gallery, the Gallery of the Royal Watercolour Society, and the Royal Society of Painter-Printmakers. Bankside Gallery celebrates the very best in contemporary watercolour and printmaking through regular exhibitions by Royal Society Members.

Exhibition Space

The Gallery is on the ground floor and consists of one main exhibition space which is approximately 200 square metres with 100 square metres of hanging space. The wall height is 3.5 metres. The Gallery is well lit and the mood is cool, spacious and contemporary.

Bankside Gallery is open seven days a week during exhibitions, from 11am to 6pm. The entrance is from the riverside with wheelchair access

Location

Bankside Gallery is situated on the Thames river front, directly beside Tate Modern in the Bankside area of London; a vibrant cultural quarter, also rich in local character and history.

Hire fee

The Gallery is available for hire on a week-by-week basis from Monday – Sunday. For 2016/17 the hire fee will be £6,500 plus VAT per week. Special rates or discounts may be available for college degree shows and charitable organisations.

Gallery Reception

Bankside Gallery provides an experienced receptionist for the duration of the exhibition period to answer visitor enquiries and process sales.

Payment

A deposit of 10% of the hire fee is payable on acceptance of the booking, and signature of the contract. The remaining payment falls due one month before the start of the exhibition.

Hanging

All framed work must be mirror plated. You may hang the work yourself or employ our technicians. Please note that installation and de-installation of the artwork must be completed within the agreed hire period.

Hire rates also include:

- An evening private view
- Listing in Bankside Gallery's exhibition diary
- Listing on www.banksidegallery.com
- Use of LCD display screen
- PA system, PRS Licensed

Getting to the Gallery

It couldn't be easier to reach Bankside Gallery; we are on the Thames Path right next to Tate Modern and across the river from St Paul's Cathedral. The new Blackfriars Station south entrance is directly adjacent to the Gallery.
